

The Inn of the Seasons

Wine Wednesday

April 8, 2020

Clay Harpending from Polaner Selections will be our guest featuring Poppy Wines of California

Four 2 ounce tastes of the following wines for $15.00

Poppy Santa Lucia Highlands Chardonnay 2016

Aromas of sweet golden apple, ripe citrus, tropical fruit and almond with touches of creamy yeast, vanilla and oak in the background. On the palate, the rich flavors are complemented by a light touch of toasty oak and refreshing citrus with mineral notes and bright acidity in the finish.

Poppy Pinot Noir Monterey County 2016

The red fruit brightens across the palate, picking up raspberry and spice are balanced by the French toasted oak aromas. Soft and silky through the middle, this wine crescendo on the finish leaves a juicy memory in the mouth, with proper acidity and a pleasant mouth-feel.

Poppy Pinot Noir Santa Lucia Highlands Reserve 2016

Aromas and flavors of chocolate croissant, buttered gingerbread, red apple and beet relish, and mushrooms in cream with a velvety, vibrant, fruity medium body and a graceful, interesting, medium-long finish imparting touches of hazelnut latte and blood orange with silky tannins and moderate oak flavor.

Poppy Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles 2017

Blueberry, black cherry, currant, licorice, vanilla, and spice aromas and flavors pair with a round, supple, wine that finishes clean and smooth and remarkably long.
